

JATTIE.

Church at this place Sunday and Sunday night was largely attended. Theodore Hammond has gone to Lewis county to work.

D. J. Thompson and L. O. Perry made a business trip to Grayson Saturday. Miss Linnie Hillman, who has been visiting relatives at Sandy Hook, has returned home.

Mrs. B. B. Wells was visiting Mrs. Laff Thompson Thursday.

Mrs. J. M. Watson was shopping at Tuscola recently.

Miss Nona Hall was visiting Ruth Thompson last week.

Arthur Queen was on our creek Sunday.

J. M. Watson and G. W. Webb made a business trip to Flemingsburg last week.

Misses Ruth Thompson and Ethel Prichard were visiting Martha Thompson Sunday.

Ida Belle Chaffin was visiting Delphia and Demondia Wilson recently.

Oscar Daniels was the guest of Golda Wilson Sunday.

James Hillman was a caller at D. J. Thompson's last week.

Mrs. Belva Coffee was visiting Mrs. Dovie Young Saturday night.

Madge Bush is visiting relatives at this place.

Martha and Eunice Thompson were shopping at Jattie Friday.

Ernest Jordan filled his appointment at this place Sunday.

There will be church at this place Saturday night and Sunday, Feb. 27, by Rev. Bowling.

THREE CHUMS.

EAST FORK.

Miss Lucretia Hazlette of this place has been very ill for some time but is improving slowly.

Misses Marie Handley and Vannie Shortridge were the over Sunday guests of Miss Emma McGlothlin.

Miss Lella Banfield spent Thursday with home folks. Mr. and Mrs. Lon Ross.

The trappers of this vicinity are doing good business this snowy weather.

Elizabeth Hazlette has been very ill with grippe for some time and is improving slowly.

Lark Lawson of Greenwood, Ky., passed by this place last week.

Mr. Allen Hazlette and his wife will go to housekeeping on Garner in the near future.

Mrs. Mary Lambert of Garner, who has been ill with pneumonia is slowly improving.

Lute Higgins moved Ben Vanover's family to Cat one day last week.

Mr. Andrew Fuller is visiting relatives and friends in Greenup county this week.

Clyde Bolt was on this creek Friday buying furs.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown and children were at Culbertson visiting friends and relatives Saturday.

Bert Edmund had the misfortune to have his house on Bolts Fork burned down last week.

Roscoe Brown was on this creek Monday.

Miss Linwood Lambert of East Fork went to Richmond last Thursday where she will attend school the rest of this winter.

Marguerite Ross was visiting home folks Wednesday.

Mr. Fred Clay went to Bolts Fork Monday on business.

TUSCOLA.

Since the wave of gripe passed we have but little sickness. All are able to eat which makes it very expensive.

The sun and wind shook the moisture out of the mud till in places the roads are dry. A few days more of such weather and traffic will start again.

Since the marriage of Mr. Tobe Harmon and Miss May Harless they have gone to housekeeping on the head of Spring creek on the Culbertson farm. Tobe is a hustling worker and deserves to succeed. May success crown their efforts.

Frank Harmon has moved on Leonard Lester's farm.

Ben Vanover has moved on Bill Dean's farm and will work for him this season. We welcome all good people.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ratcliff of Cincinnati are visiting friends and relatives here. They will return to the city this week.

Some of our good people have been attending the great revival meetings at Green Valley conducted by Rev. Harvey.

Willie Kitchen of Yatesville was here Sunday.

James Prichard, Charley Rice and others had business at Dennis Saturday.

Ed Taylor of Glenwood was here on business last week.

OLD LEM JUCKLENS.

HICKSVILLE AND JATTIE.

Miss Hovia E. Pinkerton left Monday for Louisa where she will attend school.

Mrs. Minnie Hayes and son, Lando, have returned from West Va., where they were visiting relatives.

Mrs. Belva Thompson was visiting Canale E. Hayes one afternoon last week.

School closed here last week.

Cannie E. Hayes was shopping at Overda Tuesday.

Miss Stella Dalton was visiting at Mr. Holbrook's Sunday.

Miss Golda Wilson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Martha Wilson of Bellstrace.

Mrs. Jane Webb and daughter, Martha visited Mrs. Barbara McKinney Monday.

Ernest Jordan of Glenwood spends Sunday at L. D. Wilson's.

Oscar Daniel is at Huntington, W. Va., where he has employment.

Mrs. Della Sawyers was calling on Mrs. L. D. Wilson Monday.

Powell Vanhorn was visiting Miss Delphia Wilson Sunday.

Miss Ida B. Chaffin is with her sister Mrs. Mack Stewart of Bellstrace.

Mrs. Barbara McKinney was visiting her daughter on Caney Fork recently.

Mrs. Martha Hammond is some better at this writing.

Clarence Webb passed up our creek Sunday.

A BELLE.

HICKSVILLE AND JATTIE.

School closed at the Hicksville school house Saturday, Feb. 12th.

Ernest Kelly, who has been working at South Solon, O., has returned home.

Mack Stuart of Ratcliff, was a business caller at J. M. Dalton's Saturday last.

Cannie E. Hays was visiting Mrs. Nancy Holbrook recently.

Ernest L. Jordan made his regular trip to L. D. Wilson's Sunday.

Ida B. Chaffin is visiting her sister Mrs. Mae Stuart this week.

Brig Vanhorn of Matewan, W. Va., is visiting relatives at this place.

M. M. Stuart was calling on his daughter, Mrs. S. J. McKinney last week.

Calvin Holbrook has gone to Louisa where he will attend school.

Rumors say we are going to have some weddings soon.

Mrs. Mae Holbrook was visiting Mrs. J. M. Dalton Saturday.

Clarence Stuart was calling at L. D. Wilson's recently.

John Busch passed up our creek last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Campbell, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holbrook have returned home.

Oscar Daniel has taken his departure to Huntington, W. Va.

Stella Dalton was visiting at Isaac Wilson's Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Isaac Kelly, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Tom Perkins of Trenton, O., has returned home.

Jasper Triplett and family will soon leave for Majestic, Ky., where they will make their future home.

A LEAF YEAR GIRL.

MATTIE.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Moore, a fine girl.

Rev. Adam filled his appointment at this place Saturday and Sunday.

Reuben Moore, our mail carrier, is loaded with parcel post now days.

B. F. Moore has returned home from Waverly, O., where he has been visiting his son B. H. Moore.

Ellis Motook is expected on our creek soon.

Qua and Harrison Hays of Georges creek were here Saturday and Sunday.

Alma Hays has returned home from Ledoto.

Jay Moore made a trip to Blaine recently.

Rev. Fred Short passed down our creek Saturday.

Jesse Cordle of Cordell was calling on J. W. Moore, Sr., Sunday last.

Louapha Moore was the guest of her cousins, Bertha and Stella Moore Sunday.

The quilting party given by Mrs. Octava Moore was largely attended.

J. D. Ball was calling on Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hays recently.

Charlie Moore is transacting business at this place for M. F. Moore, of Columbus, Ohio.

Dewey Moore of Cordell is expected on our creek soon.

Farris Moore, Jr., makes frequent trips to Cordell.

John M. Thompson and Miss Emma Sturgell of Ratcliff, were married recently.

Tom and Beanie Moore were visiting friends at Georges creek last last week.

Fred Wellman made a business trip to Louisa Wednesday.

Mrs. J. D. Ball spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. H. F. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Dora Moore attended church at Rich creek Friday night.

W. M. Hays and family have moved to Georges creek.

SPUNK.

Malvina Moves

Malvina sighed and arose from her typewriter. "I might have known that inspiration for love stories would flee from mountain boarding houses," she told herself as she swept a hand across her wide, intelligent eyes.

From the room below which was called parlor came the refrain of "Oh, You Beautiful Dood;" then, "Every Little Movement." The tone from the piano itself was like the jangle of many discordant tins, but the music—

Malvina stopped her ears, then, with quick movements slipped into her white jersey and out into the cool mountain air. Her nerves were in dire need of calm and quiet.

She walked on with lightened heart. The pungent odor of balsam and the cool breezes from the lake soothed her.

She approached a small camp with eager steps. How had this jewel in the forest escaped her before?

The young author did not stop to realize that this was her first venture into the depths of the woods. And with the writer's longing for seclusion Malvina pictured herself ensconced in that picturesque camp. She felt that all of her budding plot would burst into full bloom and that her name would appear in many of the magazines. Even under the trying position of living in boarding houses Malvina's work had found favor with two or three editors. James Blake of the Comet had been especially attracted to her stories. She hoped, before long, to meet him. He had been a great help to her.

The girl's imaginings had brought her to the door of the camp. Her eyes opened wide in surprise. The place was open at doors and windows and was apparently without an inhabitant. Malvina's heart quickened its beat. Perhaps she could run away from the boarding house with her little typewriter and work here in this wonder house?

Inside all was rough, but not without a sense of the artistic. Malvina came to the quick conclusion that a man who was fond of hunting owned the camp and that he was there only during the hunting season.

With joyous feet she hurried back to the boarding house and from there to the village store. It was imperative to Malvina that when writing she have pink flowered curtains and a pink kimono. The latter she already had. The pink curtains which she would tack up in the camp must be purchased at the one village store.

It was the following day before she arrived at the little house. She was laden with her typewriter, her pink curtains, her tea equipment and her pink kimono.

Malvina was tired but happy when she threw herself down on the wide couch for a moment's rest. The camp had been turned into a bower of pink and odd dishes of wild flowers were scattered about.

Outside at the edge of the forest, a big man swung along with an old handbag in one hand and his fishing paraphernalia in the other.

When he drew near an indefinable something stirred within him. Never before, during the many summers he had spent in the mountains, had his camp seemed so desolate.

Blake quickened his pace and sprang up to the veranda. He stopped before he had entered, held by the glimmer of pink at the windows.

Instinctively Blake removed his soft hat before going inside. He caught a quick breath and stood as if suddenly lost to his surroundings.

By all the laws of propriety Blake should have turned and left his own camp. But he could not move with the sight of Malvina, pictured before him. She was in a sound sleep and her cheeks were flushed. Her glorious hair was a mass of spun copper that trailed over the cushion.

The power of his eyes disturbed her and she stirred. Blake, spell-bound, watched the heavy lashes flutter, then rise slowly up to reveal her eyes.

Blake then came to his senses and turned toward the door. He waited outside on the veranda until she should come. He felt that she would follow immediately.

Malvina did. "I suppose you are the hunter who invited wayfarers into your camp?" she asked with a half smile.

"And you are the wayfarer?" Blake returned because he could think of nothing else for the moment.

"I supposed the hunting season did not begin until later," Malvina smiled half wistfully.

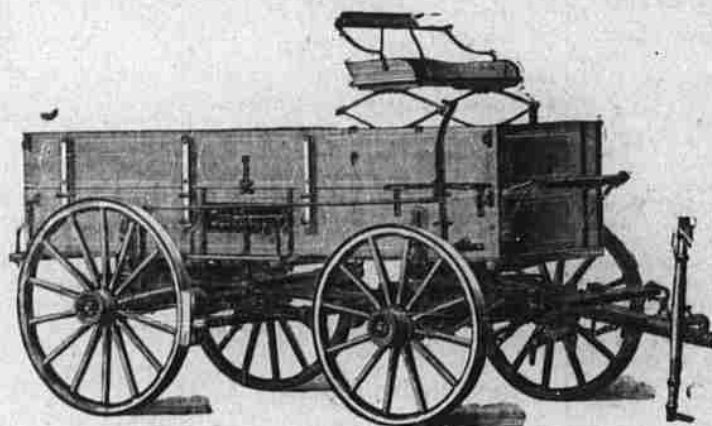

"It does not. But fishing suits me almost as well, and since the Comet needs me in the fall—"

"And you need your own camp now," Malvina interrupted. "It is time for me to depart."

"Not at all—I intend to stay at a boarding place nearby—where I shall not have to bother even with my own messenger fare."

But Malvina would not remain; she felt that she must go, and since Blake had insisted that he preferred to stay at the boarding place he must needs go whether or not he liked.

Thus the two found themselves at the table of the mountain boarding house and it was in that once despoiled parlor that—not a month later—Malvina promised to marry James Blake, editor.

BIRDSSELL AND WEBER WAGONS

We have several of each of these well known wagons which do not go with the sale of our store.

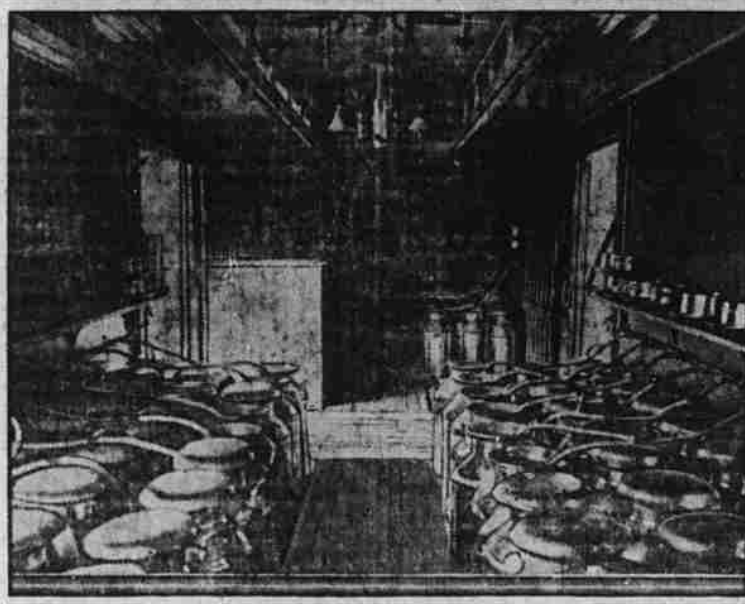

We Want to Close Out.

SNYDER HDWE. CO.

INCORPORATED

LOUISA,

KENTUCKY.

Interior view of the fish car, showing large containers for the fish. A constant flow of fresh air is pumped into the cans through the rubber tubes which keeps the fish alive on long trips.

Another interior view of the fish car, showing the living quarters of the attendants, while on duty.

GLENWOOD.

Farmers are beginning to prepare for their crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Webb paid their parents a visit at this place Sunday.

The carpet rag tacking given by Bertha Cooksey Wednesday night was largely attended.

Arthur Queen and Azle Holbrook passed up our creek Sunday enroute to the Gap.

Henry Howell and Cecil Hammonds left last week for parts unknown.

Bro. Woods failed to fill his appointment at Glenwood Sunday.

Ernest Jordan still makes his regular trips to the Brammer Gap.

Hermia Lawson was shopping at Howell & Ratcliff's store one day last week.

Willie Cooksey has moved into the house vacated by Ballard Arden.

Herbie Ratcliff has sold his farm on Bellstrace to Robert Jordan of Lost creek.

Frank Coburn was visiting his daughter on Bellstrace Saturday and Sunday.

Leah Holbrook is very low at this writing.

George Belcher purchased some fine cattle from Jason Lawson Wednesday.

Hughes Hicks was on our creek Wednesday.

Dennis Cooksey was calling on his sister on Lost creek Sunday.

Misses Emma and Esther Burke were calling on their sister, Mrs. Amanda Cooksey Sunday.

TOPSY.

GLENWOOD.

Rev. Woods failed to fill his appointment at this place.

The rag tacking given by Miss Bertha Cooksey was a success.

Alva Bush, who has been in Logan, W. Va., has returned home.

Roads are in very bad condition at this place.

Mr. James H. Stewart of Denton, was visiting here Sunday.

Henry Howell and Cecil Hammonds have left for Beaver creek, where they will spend the rest of the winter.

Curtis Queen is attending school at Louisa this winter.

Married, recently Tobe Harmon to Miss May Harless. We wish for them a long and happy life.

Dick Woods passed down our creek one day last week.

W. M. Cooksey, who has been in very bad health for some time is said to be improving.

George Howell still makes his Sunday visit to Mr. Woods.

Freal Woods has returned from Logan, W. Va., and reports work very dull.

Miss Edna Webb visited her sister, Lora, recently.

Several from this place are attending school at Grayson.

Miss Mabel Coburn visited Erma Hammonds Sunday.

Ollie Thornsbury and wife visited Robert Ratcliff Sunday.

Frank Coburn visited W. M. Cooksey Sunday.

OLD MAN GRUMP.

We're Opposed to Mail Order Concerns Because—

They have never contributed a cent to furthering the interests of our town—

Every cent received by them from this community is a direct loss to our merchants—

In almost every case their prices can be met right here, without delay in receiving goods and the possibility of mistakes in filling orders.

But—

The natural human trait to buy where goods are cheapest. Local pride is usually secondary in the game of life as played today.

Therefore

Mr. Merchant and Business Man, meet your competitors with their own weapons—advertising.

Advertise!

The local field is yours. All you need do is to avail yourself of the opportunities offered. An advertisement in this paper will carry your message into hundreds of homes in this community. It is the surest medium of killing your greatest competitor. A space this size won't cost much. Come in and see us about it.